

Responsible Beverage Service and Sales Training (RBSS)

Practicing Safe Alcohol Sales and Service

Responsible Beverage Service and Sales Trainings provide clerks, servers, and managers with the knowledge and skills to sell and serve alcoholic beverages safely, responsibly, and legally.

The goal of the training is to ensure that expectations, liabilities and legal responsibilities are communicated to all licensees and their employees.

Visit rocmnd.org/rbss-training/ to sign up for virtual RBSS trainings.

COVID-19 Change in Training Procedure

During COVID-19 recommendation, we will be using the Zoom platform to provide Responsible Beverage Service and Sales Training remotely. You will need to participate by using a smart phone, tablet, or computer.

Click on the date/time listed on the calendar in which you would like to attend. It will bring up a small window and under "description" there is a registration link you need to click to register. Once registered you will then receive an email with the link to join the training you chose.

Use your phone's camera to scan the QR Code to visit ROCMND.com and select the virtual RBSS class that best fits your schedule:

Responsible Beverage Service and Sales Trainings are provided at no cost to the licensee or the employee.

This flyer is brought to you by the Sallisaw NOW Coalition. For more prevention information, please contact (918) 208.0733 or visit www.sallisawnow.com
